York County Fire and Life Safety Responds to Fire in Vacant Office Building in Seaford Area

At approximately 5:50 a.m. this morning, York County Department of Fire and Life Safety personnel were dispatched to a commercial structure fire in the 1600 block of Waterview Road, which is property owned by Dominion Energy. The fire was in a vacant office building on the site. Upon arrival at the scene, Fire and Life Safety crews encountered smoke and flames on the third floor of the building.

Once the fire was extinguished, crews began overhaul to ensure there was no chance of reignition. The exact cause of the fire is under investigation. There were no injuries.

Mutual aid assistance was provided by Langley AFB Fire Department and Abingdon Fire. Fire station backfill was provided by Newport News Fire Department and Hampton Fire and Rescue.

Questions can be directed to the York County Department of Fire and Life Safety at 757-890-3600.
